

In a Little While

Clay Edwards

In a little while, wickedness shall cease
In a little while, night shall be no more
In a little while, wickedness shall cease, in a little while

There will be no more death, nor sorrow, nor pain
There will be no more fear, nor tears, nor shame

There will be life more abundantly, joy indescribable
Peace and healing for the nations (healing for the nations)

In a little while, You're coming to reign
In a little while, You're coming to rule
In a little while, You're coming to reign, in a little while

We will sing songs of thanks (songs of thanks) and praise and love
We will sing songs of triumph (songs of triumph) which comes from above

We will sing hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah

You give life more abundantly, joy indescribable, peace prevailing
You give life more abundantly, joy indescribable
Peace and healing for the nations
